THE following telegram from His Excellency the Governor General to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, in reply to a telegram from His Honour, stating that it was understood that parties fitting out for Behring's Sea were arming for the purpose of resisting seizure, is published for general information.

JNO. ROBSON,
Provincial Secretary.

[TELEGRAM.]

Ottawa, 27th March, 1888.

To Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, Victoria.

Your Government should issue public notice cautioning persons going on sealing expeditions to refrain from assertion of their rights by force, and from taking on board arms and ammunition in excess of their usual requirements. The whole matter is engaging the attention of Her Majesty's Government and forms the subject of diplomatic negotiations now in progress. Any intemperate action in the meanwhile would be most detrimental to British Columbian interests and might lead to serious complications and be followed by grave consequences to those concerned.

(Signed) LANSDOWNE.

AT THE COURT AT WINDSOR,

The 12th day of July, 1887.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty,
Lord President,
Earl of Kintore,
Earl Brownlow,
Sir W. Hart Dyke,
Sir John Colwell.

WHEREAS by an Ordinance of the Governor and Legislative Council of the Colony of British Columbia (No. 8, in the thirty-second year of Her Majesty's Reign) entitled "An Ordinance to regulate the Supreme Courts of Justice of British Columbia," it was enacted that the Supreme Courts of the Mainland of British Columbia and of Vancouver Island shall be merged into one Supreme Court, to be called "The Supreme Court of British Columbia," upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice of either Court; and whereas the said Supreme Courts of the Mainland and of Vancouver Island have now been so merged in one Supreme Court of British Columbia, but no provision has yet been made for the prosecution and regulation of Appeals to Her Majesty in Council from the said Supreme Court:

And whereas it is expedient that provisions should be made by this Order to enable parties to appeal from the decisions of the said Supreme Court of British Columbia to Her Majesty in Council, it is hereby ordered by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council as follows:

1. Any person or persons may appeal to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council, from any final judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Supreme Court of British Columbia in such manner, within such time, and under and subject to such rules, regulations, and limitations as are hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

In case any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall be given or pronounced for or in respect of any sum or matter at issue above the amount or value of three hundred pounds sterling (300/), or in case such judgment, decree, order, or sentence shall involve directly or indirectly any claim, demand, or question to or respecting property or any civil right amounting to or of the value of three hundred pounds sterling (300/), the person or persons feeling aggrieved by any such judgment, decree, order, or sentence may within fourteen days next after the same shall have been pronounced, made, or given, apply to the said Court by motion or petition for leave to appeal therefrom to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council;

In case such leave to appeal shall be prayed by the party or parties who is or are directed to pay any such sum of money or perform any duty, the said Court may either direct that the judgment, decree, order, or sentence appealed from shall be carried into execution, or that the execution thereof shall be suspended pending the said appeal, as to the said Court may appear to be most consistent with real and substantial justice;

And in case the said Court shall direct such judgment, decree, order, or sentence to be carried into execution, the person or persons in whose favour the same shall be given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into good and sufficient security to be approved by the said Court for the due performance of such judgment or order as Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall think fit to make upon such appeal;

In all cases security shall also be given by the party or parties appellant in a bond or mortgage or personal recognizance not exceeding the value of five hundred pounds sterling (500/.) for the prosecution of the appeal, and the payment of all such costs as may be awarded by Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, or by the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council, to the party or parties respondent; and if such last-mentioned security shall be entered into within three months from the date of such motion or petition for leave to appeal, then, and not otherwise the said Court shall admit the appeal, and the party or parties appellant shall be at liberty to prefer and prosecute his, her, or their appeal to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council, in such manner and under such rules as are or may be observed in appeals made to Her Majesty from Her Majesty's Colonies and Plantations abroad.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court, at its discretion, on the motion or petition of any party who considers himself aggrieved by any preliminary or interlocutory judgment, decree, order, or sentence of the said Supreme Court, to grant permission to such party to appeal against the same to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council, subject to the same rules, regulations, and limitations as are herein expressed respecting appeals from final judgments, decrees, orders, and sentences.

3. Nothing herein contained doth or shall extend or be construed to extend to take away or abridge the undoubted right and authority of Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, upon the humble petition of any person or persons aggrieved by any judgment or determination of the said Court, at any time to admit his, her, or their appeal therefrom, upon such terms and upon such securities, limitations, restrictions, and regulations as Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, shall think fit, and to reverse, correct, or vary such judgment or determination as to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall seem meet.

4. In all cases of appeal admitted by the said Court, or by Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, the said Court shall certify and transmit to Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, in Her or their Privy Council, a true and exact copy of all evidence, proceedings, judgments, decrees, and orders had or made in such cases appealed, so far as the same have relation to the matter of appeal, such copies to be certified under the seal of the said Court, and the said Court shall also certify and transmit to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, in Her or their Privy Council, a copy of the reasons given by the Judges of such Court, or by any of such Judges, for or against the judgment or determination appealed against, where such reasons shall have been given in writing, and where such reasons shall have been given orally, then a statement in writing of the reasons given by the Judges of such Court, or by any of such Judges, for or against the judgment or determination appealed against.

5. The said Court shall, in all cases of appeal to Her Majesty, Her heirs or successors, conform to and execute or cause to be executed such judgments and orders as Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall think fit to make in the premises in such manner as any original judgment, decree, or decretal order, or other order or rule of the said Court should or might have been executed.

And the Right Honourable Sir Henry Holland, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. L. PEEL.
